As Yama (or Mandavya) is about to move to a new abode, his wife Kaushalya worries that her husband will die soon, and it is her fault that he does not live long. She orders him to pass on his knowledge to the people living on earth. Thus he travels to the world and calls himself Yama, the founder of the Rakshaka society. Yama challenges other Rakshasas to challenges, such as eating all the herbs on earth, drinking the water from the ocean, and crossing the river Ganges. But the
